Hospital for Didsbury

One of the greatest blessings that any town can boast of is the hospital and there is not the slightest doubt but that every individual in and around Didsbury will be pleased to know that the Council have already selected a first-class building suitable for hospital purposes.

The building is on the east side of the power plant known as the McLean property, a large stone house surrounded by a beautiful lawn and a first-class verandah which may be used by convalescents to great advantage. Apparatus is already in the building whereby hot and cold water is supplied upstairs and down.

The hospital will be used not only for cases of ordinary sickness, but for maternity cases and minor surgical operations.

The municipalities of Westerdale and Mountain View are both supporting this movement and Didsbury is to be congratulated upon having men on the Council who are alive to the necessities of the district and progressive enough to see that we get them. The expense necessary to equip the place is an item that must not be overlooked however and whatever means may be adopted for that purpose we hope, and fully believe, that it will meet with sincere approval. In the meantime should there be any person desirous of doing something that their townfolk will appreciate, nothing better than a donation towards the hospital equipment can be commended. After the initial expense has been met we believe the hospital will be capable of producing by the necessary fees chargeable to patients all that will be required but in any event now that we have started we must not rest content until we are sure that we have not only a hospital but one that for accommodation can compare with the best.

Mr. H. W. Chambers is representing Didsbury and Messrs. Pearson and Stirton the municipalities of Mountain View and Westerdale.

Seventh Semi-Monthly Crop Report

Department of Agriculture

The condition of grain, fodder and root crops in Alberta is very distinctly improved at the present time on account of a month of favorable weather over practically the entire province.

In the Peace River country the crops are generally quite heavy and the cutting period is beginning in the case of barley and early wheat and will be well advanced with respect to these two grains by the 25th of August. Root crops are excellent, cattle and horses are looking well and there are great increases in cattle stock due to the offerings from the south.

In Central Alberta extending right to the eastern boundary, which was very dry earlier in the season, crops of all kinds are conceded to be at present quite beyond expectations of a month ago. Briefly the situation in Central Alberta is this. Early grain crops are not heavy, this applies particularly to wheat. Early oats are not heavy but where not too early they have shown greater recuperation than was expected and barley is a good crop in most places and the late oat crop is going to be quite heavy. Roots are excellent. Pastures are improved very greatly. Tame hay is a light crop but the rains are going to do more than simply improve the pastures. There will be considerable late hay cut as a result of rains during the past three or four weeks. Cutting of all kinds of crops is general in Central Alberta.

In Southern Alberta there is no much new to report with respect to grain crops. There will be some feed on fields that have failed and the pastures are freshening. Flax is now doing well but is not sufficiently advanced for this time of the year. The potato crop is considerably improved. Most of the south country has received about four inches of rain within the past three or four weeks. The soil is now in condition for cultivation in preparation for next year.

The chief value of the rain at the present time is to relieve the anxiety among the people who have cattle and to strengthen prices for cattle that are being put on the market to reduce stocks. Good stockers on the Calgary market have risen from six and a half to eight cents over the past fortnight and the demand is satisfactory at this price. It has been generally recognized that the surplus of hay in Central and Northern Alberta is not as great as it was last year. On the other hand the selling services at the central markets are particularly active and the demand for stocker she stuff by farmers in Central and Northern Alberta is very keen. The absorption of this stock is going to be a much greater factor in the relieving of the feed shortage in the south than the movement of stock north was last year. At the present time owners of surplus beef bred heifers in the south are able to do good business.

There has been no great damage by hail. The only heavy hail reported in the province since last report was in the Edmonton district. A stretch of hail varying from two to five miles wide ran from Volmer Station eastward for a distance of about ten miles. Small patches have been visited by hail in the Peace River country and Spruce Grove.

"Well, you youngsters must have this country pretty well explored," said Dr. Hardy, as they entered the house. "Where was it today: the prairies, the foothills, or the real fellows behind?"

"The canyon, up the river," said Irene, drawing off her sweater. "What's the cats? Gee, I'm hungry. Getting pretty supple, Daddykins, aren't you?"

"Yes, an' I'm sorry for it, Miss," said the old rancher. "Not wishin' him any harm, or you neither. We was jus' talkin' it over an' your father thinks he's spry enough for the road again. Ain't ever goin' to be like it use to be after he's gone, an' you."

So the afternoon's conversation in the canyon and the cabin had been on the same theme, although prompted by very different emotions. Yet the girl wondered whether the loneliness in the old man's heart, which cried out to his own sex, might not bear some relationship to a strange, new sense she herself was experiencing; a sense which reminded her that she was incomplete—and alone. And it called across the barrier of sex for completion.

"We'll be sorry to go," said the doctor. "That's what I've been saying all day, and thinking, too. If misfortunes can be lucky, ours was one of that kind. I don't know when I've enjoyed a holiday so much. What do you say, girl?" he asked, as he rested an arm on her round, firm shoulder and looked with fatherly fondness into the fine brown of her face.

"I've never known anything like it," she answered. "It's wonderful. It's life." Then with a sudden little scream she exclaimed, "Oh, Daddy, why can't you sell your practice and buy a ranch? Wouldn't that be wonderful?"

"Your mother might not see it that way," he replied, and her eyes fell. Yes, that was the obstacle. She would have to go back to the city, and talk by rule, and dress by rule, and behave by rule, and be correct. She wondered how often her father had turned from the path of the true adventure because her mother "might not see it that way."

"It's been a good time," the doctor continued, when they had commenced supper, "but I've already overstayed my holiday. Well, I had good excuse. I feel that I can travel now, and my leg will be pretty strong by the time I am back East. If Dave will oblige us by going to town to-morrow and bringing back someone who can drive a car we will be able to start the following morning. I will just take the car to town and either sell it there or ship it."

The following morning found Dave early on the trail, leading a saddled horse by his side. The hours were leaden for the girl all that day, and looking into the future she saw the spectre of her life shadowed down the years by an unutterable loneliness. How could she ever drop it all—all this wild freedom, this boundless health, this great outdoors, this life, how could she drop it all and go back into the little circle where convention fenced out the tiniest alien streamlet, although the circle itself might lie deep in mire? And how would she give up this boy who had grown so imperceptibly but so intimately into the very soul of her being; give him up with all his strength, and virility, and—yes, and coarseness, if you will—but sincerity too; an essential man, as God made him, in exchange for a machine-made counterfeit with the stamp of Society? Deeply did she ponder these questions, and as the day wore on she found herself possessed of a steadily growing determination that she would not follow the beaten trail, let the by-paths lead where they might.

Darkness, save for a white moon, had settled over the foothills when the boy returned with another young man. The stranger ate a ravenous supper, but was not too occupied to assay conversation with Irene. Indeed, from their meeting at the doorway his eyes scarcely left her. He chose to call her cook.

"Swell pancakes, cook," was his opening remark. "Can you find another for yours truly?"

She refilled his plate without answer. "Used to know a girl mighty like you," he went on. "Waitress in the Royal Edward. Gee, but she was swell! A pippin! Class! Say, she had 'em all guessing. Had me guessing myself for awhile. But just for awhile." He voiced these remarks with an air of intense self-approval more offensive than the words.

Irene felt the colour rise about her neck and cheeks and run like an overflowing stream into her ears and about her hair. It was evident that, for a second time, Dave had chosen to say nothing to strangers about her presence at the ranch. But that was not what brought the colour. She was addressed as a menial, as a hired helper in the Elden household! Her own honesty told her that even that was not what brought the colour. It was not even the man's insolent familiarity; it was his assumption that his familiarity would not be resented. Her father and Mr. Elden were in Dave's room; Dave had stopped eating and she saw the veins rising in his clenched fists. But the challenge was to her, and she would accept it; she felt no need of his protection.

"Fill your stomach," she said, passing more pancakes; "your head is hopeless."

He attempted a laugh, but the meal was finished in silence. The stranger lit a cigarette, and Irene went to the door with Dave. An over-lace of silver moonlight draped the familiar objects near at hand and faded into the dark, vague lingerie of night where the spruce trees cut their black wedge along the valley.

"Come for a walk," he whispered. "The horses are tired, so let's walk. It's our last chance."

She ran for her sweater and rejoined him in a moment. They walked in silence down a path through the fragrant trees, but Dave turned from time to time to catch a glimpse of her face, white and fine as ivory in the soft light. He had much to say; he felt that the ages could not utter all he had to say tonight, but he was tongue-tied under the spell of her beauty.

"You squelched him, all right," he broke out at length.

"Just in time, too, I think," she replied. "I was watching your hands."

He smiled a quiet but very confident smile. "Reenie," he said, "that fellow makes me sick. All the way out he talked about girls. If it hadn't been that I was makin' the trip for your father I'd 'a' licked him on the road, sure. He's a city chap, an' wears a white collar, but he ain't fit to speak your name. Another minute an' I'd 'a' had 'im by the neck." He seized a spruce limb that stuck across their path. It was the size of a stout stick but he snapped it with a turn of his wrist. It was very tough; it oozed sticky stuff where he broke it. "His neck," he said, between his teeth. "Jus' like that."

They reached an open space. Something black—or was it red?—lay on the ground. Dave bent over it a moment, then looked up to her white, clear face, whiter and clearer than ever since witnessing the strength of his hate.

"It's Brownie," he said, as calmly as he could. "Half set up. Wolves, I guess."

He saw her eyes grow slowly larger in the moonlight. Without a word she sank to her knees. He saw her fingers about her head, burrowing in her hair. Then she looked up, over the black trees, to the sky with its white moon and its few great stars.

"The poor, poor thing," she breathed. "The poor, innocent thing. Why did it have to die?"

"It's always the innocent things 'at suffers," he answered.

"Always the innocent things," she repeated mechanically. "Always—"

She sprang to her feet and faced him. "Then what about the justice of God?" she demanded.

"I don't know nothin' about the justice of God," he answered, bitterly. "All I know is the crittur 't can't run gets caught."

There was a long pause. "It doesn't seem right," she said at length.

"It ain't right," he agreed. "But I guess it's life. I see it here on the prairies with every living thing. Everything is a victim, some way or other. Even the wolves 'at tore this little beast 'H go down to some rancher's rifle, maybe, although they were only doing what nature said. I guess it's the same way in the cities; the innocent bein' hunted, an' the innocent they are the easier they're caught. An' then the wolves beggin' off, an' sayin' it was only nature."

The girl had no answer. No one had ever talked to her like this. What did this country boy know? And yet it was plain, he did know. He had lived among the fundamentals.

"I guess I was like that, some," he went on. "I've been caught. I guess a baby ain't responsible for anything, is it? I didn't pick my father or my mother, did I? But I got to hear it."

There was something near a break in his voice on the last words. She felt she must speak.

"I think your father is a wonderful old man," she said, "and your mother must have been wonderful, too. You should be proud of them both."

"Reenie, do you mean that?" he demanded. His eyes were looking straight into hers. Once before he had faced her with that question, and she had not forgotten.

"Absolutely," she answered. "Absolutely, I mean it."

"Then I'm goin' to say some more things to you," he went on, rapidly. "Things 'at I didn't know whether to say or not, but now they've got to be said, whatever happens. Reenie, I haven't ever been to school, or learned lots of things I should 'a' learned, but I ain't a fool, neither. I know 'at when you're home you live thousands of miles from me, but I know 'at in your mind you live further away than that. I know it's like all the prairies, an' all the oceans were between us. But I know, too, that people cross prairies an' oceans, an' I'm waitin' to cross. I know it takes time, an' I'll be a slow traveller, but I'm a mighty persistent crittur when I start out. I didn't learn to break all those bottles in a day. Well, I can learn other things, too, an' I will, if only it will take me across. I'm goin' to leave this old ranch, someway, jus' as soon as it can be arranged. I'm goin' to town, an' work. I'm strong; I can get pretty good wages. I've been thinkin' it all over, and was askin' some questions in town today. I can work days and go to school nights. An' I'll do it if it'll get me across. You know what I mean. I ain't askin' no pledges, Reenie, but what's the chance? I know I don't talk right, an' I don't eat right—you tried not to notice, but you couldn't help—but Reenie, I think right, an' I guess with a girl like you that counts more than eatin' and talkin'."

Wireless Telephony In Night flying

Test Carried Out During a Recent Night Flight from Kenley to Paris.

London, England.—The extraordinary value of wireless telephony for directional purposes in connection with aircraft has been emphasized recently in its relation to night flying. It often happens that in daylight inter-communication between planes, or between wireless stations and aircraft is unnecessary, but in flying across country at night the use of the wireless phone will become more and more efficacious.

Some details are now available of a test carried out during a recent night flight from Kenley to Paris. This in no way constitutes a record, but is nevertheless interesting as indicating what is being done as a matter of routine. Wireless telephony has now been definitely adopted as a means of ground to air communication and vice versa, on the London-Paris route, and the test in question was made with one of the first machines on this service fitted for the purpose.

Communication was opened as soon as the Handley Page had obtained height and, after speaking to the ground station, the receiver was turned in and speech was very clearly heard from Kenley. The officer conducting the test emphasizes in his report, speech, quality, and strength, and states that he easily recognized the voice as that of an officer known to him. To a distance of about 35 miles the strength of signals was so great that speech from the machine could be clearly heard at Kenley with the receiver laid upon the table. At 50 miles it was still distinct and constant and was heard until the aeroplane was crossing the channel and was in touch with Marquise, the first ground station on the French side.

On the return journey conversation between the machine and Marquise was again picked up at Kenley, and the latter station itself was in communication with the machine 30 minutes before it landed.

One of the recent developments in this connection is the production of an aeroplane set which can be converted within a few moments for transmission of either voice or Morse signals.

Take heed of the first stumble, for it is ominous; and at best there is a good step lost. — Benjamin Whichcote.

THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. Godden Tells How It
May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." — Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptoms as heat flashes, nervousness, backache, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complications present themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. The result of forty years experience is at your service and your letter held in strict confidence.

London. — A massacre in the Jewish quarter of Odessa, carried out by troops of General Gregorieff, which are occupying that city, is reported in advices received by semi-official Polish sources. The Jewish quarters were surrounded by the troops, it is declared, and a massacre was begun from which no one escaped.

The entire quarter was for three days and nights in the hands of the Russian soldiers, the advices stated.

The Jews of the Ukraine and Bessarabia, it was added, have proclaimed a mourning period of fourteen days.

Metric Campaign

Supported in Britannia

San Francisco, August:-- World
Trade Club of San Francisco is receiving daily a large number of letters from English-speaking people all over the world, pledging support to the campaign for world wide adoption of the metric units meter-liter-gram.

A Lieutenant-Colonel in the British Army who is still stationed in France has written World Trade
Club as follows:

"You may be amused at the following story of a conversation of mine with two officers of the U. S.
American Ordinance Department with whom I made dear friends. I said: 'There is one thing about the United States which, when I realized it, filled me with horror and contempt.' This made them sit up and wonder what I was getting at.
However, they quite politely asked me what it was, without knocking me down. I replied: 'You use to your own disgrace the same ghastly weights and measures as we do.'"

Another typical letter comes from the pastor of a large London church.
He says of the metric system: "I am convinced that its exclusive use would create a greater unity among the world's nations, both commercially and socially, and would therefore be a potent means of the continuation of peace. Therefore, I hope that your efforts to this end will be repaid with success."

Official Tells Advertising Men Need of Metric Units

In a recent address before the advertising Club of Baltimore, Md.,
H. D. Hubbard of Washington, D.
C., Secretary to the U. S. Government Bureau of Standards made an earnest plea for the adoption of metric units of measurement in the United States.

Mr. Hubbard pointed out that,
during the war, American manufacturers were forced to use the metric system in the manufacture of guns and other ordnance, and 2 principal American locomotive works had to use it in the building of locomotives. If the work on the blue prints for these locomotives had to be done in feet and inches, Mr.
Hubbard said, the locomotives would never have been built. He further said that America by refusing to adopt the metric units is keeping herself as far behind in the matter of proper standards as was China, who has now adopted metric units.

Wall Street Journal Approves of Metric System

The voice of the Wall Street Journal editorially urged the adoption of metric weights and measures by the United States. The Journal points out that this simple and logical system was favored by Washington, Jefferson, Madison and other statesmen. And that throughout the history of this nation public men and economists have urged the advantages of this simple decimal system of weights and measures. The

Naval Pageant In Old London

Symbolizing Role of British Sea Services in War Were Five Miles of Craft.

London. — The important role played by the British sea service during the great war was commemorated by a naval pageant on the Thames, the day marking the fifth anniversary of the historic mobilization of the British fleet. Plans for the event, while giving recognition to the allied and associated powers laid stress on the fact that this was a purely British occasion and the Union Jack and the banners of St. George, St. Patrick, St. Andrew and St. David predominated in decorations along the riverside. Tower Bridge was the point selected for the start of the five-mile procession.

On account of the fact that the space beneath the Thames bridges is somewhat limited it was impossible to include the large vessels in the pageant, but the procession lost nothing of interest on account of this. King George's royal barge was in service. It was built more than 200 years ago for Queen Mary by King William and was richly ornamented with crimson and gold.

In planning the celebration, efforts were made to symbolize the development of Great Britain's naval power and typify the connection between the navy and the mercantile marine.

The procession, which was marshalled at the Tower Bridge at 4 p.m., spread out five miles and when the head of the line reached Chelsea, and as it turned with the tide the tail of the procession was just leaving the starting point. As it moved along the Thames the huge bank holiday crowds which lined the embankments swarmed on the bridges and perched upon railings and roofs of houses and in trees on both sides of the river gave the pageant a tumultuous greeting.

The progress of King George in the royal barge was marked by particular attention. His journey up the river was greeted with progressive roars of cheers on both banks, the noise culminating in an explosion of applause as the barge shot into the Cadogan pier at Chelsea, opposite Battersea Park, where the King disembarked and was received by the admiralty and civic officials.

After King George landed he took the salutes of the passing boats, while standing under a gorgeous royal banner prepared by the League of Arts. The bridges, the embankments, and the houses along the stream were ablaze with festal colors. Even the wharves were lavishly decorated, piles being painted variously orange, green, red, white, and blue, making a vivid contrast with the muddy waters of the river. Numerous bands along the shore made music as the procession passed, interpersing the national airs with such wartime favorites as "Tipperary" and "The Long, Long Trail," while choruses stationed here and there sang rollicking sea chants.

The procession was a brilliant one as a whole, being commented upon by many witnesses of this and other similar celebrations as probably surpassing in beauty and variety of effects any marine pageant of modern times.

History of Prohibition.

Chicago. — The history of the prohibition movement in the United States will be reviewed at the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Prohibition Party, to be observed here September 1 and 2. This will take place at a banquet on the first, and the next evening a big mass meeting will be addressed by leaders of the party.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed for ever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the Mucous Surfaces. — ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE. The locomotives on Canadian railways in 1918 were 5,756 in number; cars in passenger service, 6,376; cars in freight service, 209,243; cars in companies' service, 18,890, as shown in statistics compiled by the Department of Railways and Canals.

Omsk. — Petrograd's population which was more than 2,000,000 in 1912, has decreased under Bolsheviki rule to 800,000, according to documents and newspapers taken from Bolshevik prisoners here. Moscow's population was shown to have diminished by 40 per cent.

June Revenue

Ottawa. — During June war taxes collected by the department of inland revenue totalled $1,378,025. The total revenue of the department from all sources for the month was $4,586,088, a large increase over the month of June, 1918, when the revenue amounted to $2,993,630. The largest source of revenue for the month was tobacco, the excise taxes on which brought $2,425,650 to the treasury.

With the Fingers! Says Corns Lift Out Without Any Pain

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or any kind of a corn can shortly be lifted right out with the fingers if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

It is claimed that at small cost one can get a quarter of an ounce of freezone at any drug store, which is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn or callus without pain or soreness or the danger of infection.

This new drug is an ether compound, and while sticky, dries the moment it is applied and does not inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue.

This announcement will interest many women here, for it is said that the present high-heeled footwear is putting corns on practically every woman's feet.

THE CAUSE OF SICKNESS

Almost Always Due to Weak, Impoverished Blood.

Apart from accident or illness due to infection, almost all ill-health arises from one of two reasons. The great mistake that people make is in not realizing that both of these have the same cause at the root of them, namely poor and improper blood. Either bloodlessness or some trouble of the nerves will be found to be the reason for almost every ailment. If you are pale, suffer from headaches, or breathlessness, with palpitation of the heart, poor appetite and weak digestion, the cause is almost always bloodlessness. If you have nervous headaches, neuralgia, sciatica and other nerve pains, the cause is run down, exhausted nerves. But run down nerves are also a result of poor blood, so that the two chief causes of illness are one and the same.

This accounts for the great number of people, once in indifferent health, pale, nervous and dyspeptic, who have been made well and hearty by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills; for no other medicine ever discovered is so valuable for increasing the supply of rich red blood and giving strength to worn out nerves. Men and women alike greatly benefit from a course of the splendid blood builder and nerve tonic.

If your dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Caught At Last.

A father said to his pretty daughter one morning:

"What time did you send that young Simpson home last night?"

"Oh," replied the girl, "I don't think it was very late."

"Why, father?"

"It must have been close to midnight!"

"Didn't you send him out the back door and hurry off to bed when you heard me coming in?"

"Oh, I must have been in bed for hours when you came in."

"You heard me, then?"

"Yes. You woke me up."

"And you had been in bed for hours?"

"Uh huh!"

"That certainly is funny!"

"Why?"

"Because when I went to light the lamp I nearly burned my hands off on the hot chimney."

Coming Flight From Britain To Australia

Official Rules for Prize Offered by the Australian Government.

London, England. — The Royal Aero Club has issued the official rules for the £10,000 prize offered by the Australian Government for a flight from Great Britain to Australia. The flight must be accomplished in an aeroplane or seaplane in 720 consecutive hours, and must have been completed by midnight on December 31, 1920. The complete aircraft and all its component parts must have been entirely constructed within the British Empire, and the start must be made from either Hounslow Aerodrome or Calshot seaplane station. The rules differ from those forecasted, in the decision that there shall be only one control, at Singapore, where all competing craft must alight for purposes of identification. The following entry for the prize has been received: Bert Hinckler, Sopwith Dove bi-plane, 80 horsepower Le Rhone engine.

Far East As Field For Canadian Trade

Offers Many Opportunities, Not In Any Particular Thing, But Generally.

Vancouver, B. C. — China and Japan present a big field for Canadian trade, declared Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, on his arrival here, after an extended tour in the Orient in company with Mr. Logan, San Francisco, chief of the foreign exchange department of the bank, and Mr. Holt, Vancouver, manager. During the tour, they made an exhaustive examination of commercial conditions and prospects.

"The whole East offers very many opportunities for Canadian trade; not in any one particular thing, but generally," said Sir Edmund. "There is one important point that I must emphasize, however, and that is that there is no trade to be obtained without a systematic campaign being instituted to capture it. It needs a fight to capture the citadel of the East, but it is well worth taking."

France Holds Feast of Gratitude. Paris. — A "feast of national gratitude" was held throughout France and in the reconstructed provinces of Alsace and Lorraine.

In the presence of great crowds, messages from President Poincare, Premier Clemenceau and Marshal Foch were read. The exercises were of a religious character. In numerous cities school children visited the cemeteries to place wreaths on the graves of the soldiers of France and her allies who had lost their lives in the war, and everywhere homage was paid to the men who had fought to save the nation.

Agriculture Makes a Net Gain of 15,553 Men.

Ottawa. — Up to the present 273,444 members of the Canadian army have completed the demobilization questionnaires which were issued by the Department of Soldiers Civil Re-establishment. Of this number 87,771 expressed their wish to engage in stock-raising or agriculture. Of these, 20,269 are leaving other occupations to take up agriculture. As 4,716 men recently engaged in farming, have expressed the desire to take up other lines of activity, agriculture makes a net gain of 15,553 men. Accessions to professional and general occupations number 20,409, there being, on the other hand, 12,708 men who desire to leave these occupations. It is interesting to note that one out of every five soldiers is anxious to change his method of earning his living on getting out of khaki.

Effect Of Tariff Changes On Fruit

Effect of Tariff Changes on Fruit.
The Fruit Commissioner's Branch of the Department of Agriculture has made a statement to the effect that apples are not affected by the recent tariff changes. The only change in fresh fruits is the removal of the war tax. Fresh tomatoes and fresh vegetables are same rates as formerly, with the exception of the removal of the war tax. As to potatoes, when imported from a country which imposes a customs duty on potatoes grown in Canada, the tariff is as follows: British preference 12½ cents, intermediate 20 cents, and general tariff 20 cents per bushel.

The Pathos Of Devastation

France Had Visible Aspect of Having Been Bled White.

France's loss of manpower is one of the obvious things. Six months after the armistice there were women conductors upon the street cars, women working about the railroad yards, women everywhere in the fields.

France had a visible aspect of having been bled white. Men along in the forties could be seen in soldier uniform and everywhere there seemed an actual shortage of human power. It is sad to remember that during the war the population of France, quite aside from all military losses, showed a decrease of 800,000—800,000 more deaths than births.

I traversed the whole distance of the French front. The pathos of that devastated territory is beyond words, the all but homeless people camping in wrecked buildings with windows screened with paper. Patient peasants toiling northward with scanty furnishings for the home they hoped to return to were poignant sights when one had come fresh from the regions toward which they were going and knew that no roof stood in all the land.

Small but Potent.—Palmalee's Vegetable Pills are small, but they are effective in action. Would Burn Zeppelins.

Coblentz. — Germans in charge of twenty-four Zeppelins near Berlin, have threatened to burn them rather than deliver them to the allies as required by the peace treaty, according to information obtained by the American army authorities here, it was learned. The number of land messages handled by telegraph organizations in Canada in the year ended June 30, 1917, was 11,817,517, as compared with 10,835,936 in 1916. Cablegrams numbered 1,084,956, as compared with 1,134,905 in 1916. Employees in the service of telegraph organizations numbered 7,100, of which 3,996 were male and 496 female operators. Other officers and employees numbered 2,608. Salaries and wages amounted to $3,278,450, as compared with $2,898,230 in 1916. The aggregate of salaries and wages in 1917 was equal to 77.2 per cent. of operating expenses ($4,243,950), as compared with 68.9 in 1916, as stated in the Canada Year Book.

Livestock Prices Are Normal

Cattle Purchase By Manitoba Government Is Now Delayed.

Winnipeg. — As the result of information received by Hon. Valentine Winkler, provincial minister of agriculture, purchase of cattle by the government from the farmers of Alberta will be considerably delayed. A wire received from one of the provincial agents at Calgary stated that at the present time the cattle market was normal and that prices were being well maintained. The message continued by saying that the farmers of Alberta were counting considerably on the government hay scheme and that many of them were holding on to their stock in the hope that they would be able to carry them through the winter as a result of the government's assistance.

It is conservatively estimated, however, that seventy-five per cent. of the stock south of the Red Deer river will have to be sold, the telegram adds. It is not expected, however, that the farmers will commence to sell for at least a month.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well, and you have a whole quart jar of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

Germany May Release Russians.

Paris. — Marshall Foch appeared before the supreme council Saturday afternoon in connection with the discussion of the Russian prisoners. The condition of the Bulgarian army also was taken up. The council decided to inform Germany that all restrictions on the movement of Russian prisoners held in Germany have been lifted. Germany may now release such prisoners. There are between 200,000 and 250,000 Russian prisoners in Germany.

The action of the oil is instantaneous and its application is extremely simple.

Western Canada Coal Fields

British Columbia and Alberta Have Wonderful Natural Resources.

Fernie, B. C. — The three international board members of the United Mine Workers of America, who are here from across the border in an effort to settle the strike of coal miners in southern British Columbia and Alberta, are tremendously impressed with the great coal resources of this province. The three men are Samuel Ballantyne, of Iowa; Samuel Caddy, of Washington, and William Dalrymple, of Oklahoma. These men are thoroughly familiar with coal fields in every portion of the United States and are students of European conditions in relation to coal production and coal markets.

What has particularly impressed the Americans visiting this field is the fact that in this southeastern corner of British Columbia there are more than 1,000 acres of proved coal lands carrying billions of tons and that the percentage of high grade coals is far in excess of any other bituminous coal field on the American continent, if not in the world.

Strength Of Canada's Wheat Commends It

Weak Wheats of England Require Mixing With the Strong Wheats of Canada.

The baking strength of Canadian wheat is what commends it the most to the English trade. The weak wheats of England require mixing with the strong wheats of Canada. As long as the Dominion produces wheat that will answer this purpose, just as long will Canada's wheat be popular with the English miller. There is only one way in which Canada could weaken her reputation for the production of wheats of high baking strength, and that is by the individual grower shifting his attention from the recommended and well-known varieties of Canadian wheat to unknown sorts which have not been thoroughly tested and their baking strength established, according to a recent statement by the Dominion Cerealists, C. E. Saunders, Department of Agriculture.

MR. J. S. WILLISON ON OUR FUTURE

With Land Trading Gone, Industrial Supremacy is Necessary to Permanency.

"Eventually the cities, towns and villages of the West will require industries to give employment to their workmen, to provide trade for their merchants, to stimulate their various local activities and to ensure their progress and maintain their prosperity."

This passage is from a recent address by Mr. J. S. Willison, Toronto, before the Canadian Club at Winnipeg. He had pointed out that eventually there would be a decline in immigration, in land trading and in all the activities which arose from rapid increase in population. To take their place there must be industrial activity if progress was to continue.

"Without protection no nation ever achieved any considerable industrial supremacy," said Mr. Willison. "It may be that free trade is the true faith for a perfect world but either the faith is weakly held or the world is still very imperfect. I submit that protectionist duties were not imposed in Canada and have not been maintained for the special or exclusive benefit of manufacturers. Protection was established for a great national object just as certainly as the Canadian Pacific Railway was constructed for a great national object."

"By no force of logic, or effort of persuasion or act of parliament can you induce a whole people or even all the members of a single family to follow agricultural pursuits. In every family of three sons no one will devote themselves to commerce or industry. For example between 1900 and 1910, notwithstanding the wide extension of settlement in Western Canada the rural population over the whole country increased by 16.48 per cent. and the urban population by 63.83 per cent., while the total rural population is 3,924,083 as against an urban population of 3,230,441."

Growth of the Population.
"In Eastern Canada the increase of rural population was 1.6 per cent., and of urban population 43.3 per cent. In Western Canada, the increase of rural population was 135 per cent., and of urban population 242 per cent. These facts at least prove the contention that only a percentage of the population will go upon the land and it follows inevitably that we will lose by emigration those for whom we do not provide employment in mercantile and industrial pursuits."

"Under the conditions which obtain in Canada with moderate protectionist duties, industries will follow population as under free trade Canadians would go to the industries of the neighboring country. It is only by a judicious system of protection that we can conserve our own natural resources which under sound policies of legislation and administration become chief sources of public revenue and the support of great industrial communities."

"Do you believe that the industries of older Canada could thrive if they were exposed to the unobstructed competition of the highly specialized and heavily capitalized industries of the United States, manufacturing for a protected market of ninety millions of people, or do you believe that against such competition any considerable number of industries could be established in the west in this generation?"

"In the United States for nearly half a century the chief agricultural states have been protectionist strongholds because they desired that their sons should have ample choice of a vocation and employment in their own country, because they believed that grain prices for exports were determined by the markets of Europe, and because they believed that any burden imposed by protection was offset by the higher prices of local markets, that local markets were essential to profitable general farming, and that farming devoted to a single staple product could never be a permanent condition."

"This may or may not have been sound reasoning but if it was influential with American farmers under a very high tariff it may have significance for Canadian farmers under a very moderate tariff and particularly for western farmers whose prosperity will increase with the increase of some markets.

"Is it conceivable that by legislation you could create a separate free trade area in the United States, and maintain its population and prosperity at the level prevailing in the surrounding protectionist country or that the Canadian west can have wide diversity of interests, a thrifty and independent agriculture, eager local markets, busy factories and well paid mechanics, and prosperous merchants if we deliberately determine that it shall be an industrial dependency of the Republic?"

BERGEN NEWS

Bergen almost had a cloud-burst of rain recently, and not a sprinkle a few miles west.

I thought I saw Pete Leisemer near here trying to locate my berry patch. It looked a powerful lot like him any way.

Rev. S. W. Gamble who once lived in Didsbury, resides permanently at Long Beach, California.

The Bergen people were indignant at seeing about 15 autos and a few rigs going out to pick berries on Sunday. These same people, some who live seven miles east of Didsbury, are so busy they can't get ready for church on Sunday at 2 p.m., yet they can go thirty miles beyond a church to pick berries.

Honesty Brings Its Own Reward.

A returned veteran picked up a bank book and endorsed cheque for $125 in Calgary. The veteran not knowing the address of the loser took the book and cheque to the bank on which the cheque was drawn. They were restored to the owner, but that poor man, either through an impediment in his speech or pressure of business finds himself, after two weeks, still unable to say "Thank you."

HIGHLAND NEWS

The raspberries are very plentiful out here this year and there are several parties from the east out picking, in fact to note the cars lined up in the mill yard one would naturally think that J. T. Johansson was running a garage.

George Rhoads is still buying horses. He is on the trail all day buying and selling. He seems to be the lion of the hour.

Haying is here at last and with it the usual rains. Ira S. Gamble will be in his glory now. Mr. Gamble was offered a vast amount for his ranch lately and refused it.

Martin Arneson is breaking up his homestead. The soil is of the best and we hope he will soon have the girl. Good luck, Martin.

Mose Olsen is making a new trail to Bergen, only a small one and still he will keep on cooking his own meals.

Does a Farmer Need a Truck?

THE farmer with a Ford Truck practically lives next door to the market.

He has a choice of markets. He becomes more independent.

He can market his goods when and where he pleases.

He sells his crop to the very best advantage.

And his hauling costs him less—in labor and money.

It is not only cheaper to haul with a Ford Truck than with a team and wagon, it is quicker, it is easier work.

Consider the time and labor the farmer can save with a Ford Truck. With a team the trip to town takes the better part of a day.

A Ford Truck makes the same trip in two or three hours.

When labor is so scarce, what farmer can afford to waste day after day of his valuable time?

Ford Trucks Complete with Body and Enclosed Cab

Ford One-Ton Trucks are now supplied, if desired, with standard truck bodies in two types, the Stake Body and the Express Body.

In both standard bodies the cabs may be supplied with or without doors as desired.

See these complete Ford Trucks. Consider the matter from every angle; the cost of feeding horses against the cost of running a Ford Truck; the time you lose on the road; the money you lose by being so far from the best markets. There is only one conclusion you can come to. You will have a Ford Truck.

Rumania Must Observe Terms Of Armistice

Paris. — Nicholas Misu, of the Rumanian peace delegation, was summoned before the supreme council which gave him a communication for his government, saying that the Rumanian ultimatum to Hungary cannot be recognized by the peace conference and calling upon the Rumanians to live up to the armistice terms.

Misu said that the Rumanians were taking back supplies which German Field Marshal Von Mackensen took from them, but this explanation did not alter the decision of the supreme council, which was unanimous.

While the French hitherto apparently were inclined to regard Rumanian occupation of Budapest favorably, it was evident at the last council meeting that they have changed their position since the Rumanian ultimatum and are now heartily in accord with the British and United States position which the Italians have been supporting consistently.

It was made clear at the meeting that the Rumanian ambitions would cut off the communications of Central Europe and make it impossible to control the situation.

The text of the Rumanian ultimatum reads as follows:

"The Rumanian supreme command makes the following conditions upon which it will accept the cessation of hostilities requested by the Hungarian government.

"The Rumanian supreme command will give up the occupation of all Hungary if the Hungarian supreme command agrees to deliver all material of war of every kind which remains in possession of the Hungarian troops and state.

"Equipment of all kinds needed for an army of 300,000 men must be handed over along with the following: 50 per cent. of all the rolling stock which still belongs to Hungary, according to the records of the Hungarian state; 50 per cent. of all the material which exists in Hungary and is used for the construction and repairs of rolling stock; 200 touring cars; 400 motor trucks in good condition; 30 per cent. of all livestock animals of all kinds which exist at present, according to the records in Hungary."

Rioting At Liverpool

Soldiers Charged Mob With Bayonets and Distant Shots Are Heard.

Liverpool. — Troops at midnight charged with bayonets and dispersed a crowd of persons outside St. George's Hall. Several of the soldiers were beaten with axe-handles by the mob. At the same time, firing was heard in the Scotland road district. Details of the trouble there have not yet been received.

The clash outside of St. George's hall resulted from an attack on a sentry by rowdies who endeavored to take away the sentry's rifle. The sentry fired his gun in the air and a squad of troops responded and charged the disturbers.

Many U.S. Shopmen On Strike

Movement in the Unauthorized Walk-out From Railways Still Spreading.

Chicago. — Leaders of the Chicago district council of the Federated Railway Shopmen's union said that 725,000 was a conservative estimate of the number of shopmen on strike throughout the country and that the movement was still spreading. They declared violence would not be countenanced by the organization and so far as they knew no mail trains had been interfered with.

Resign From Police Union.

London. — The loyal police of Birkenhead, across the Mersey from Liverpool, have unanimously resigned membership in the police union as a protest against the latter's action in calling a strike. The men comprise about half the Birkenhead police force.

This is the first instance of loyal police in any of the strike areas openly repudiating the union.

U. S. Lecturers Are Classed As Intruders

British People Would Settle Their Affairs Themselves.

London. — Answering a question in the house of commons as to whether the government considered informing the U.S. citizens here for a prohibition campaign that "the British electors prefer to settle their domestic questions for themselves," Edward Shortt, secretary of home affairs, said:

"I am disposed to agree with the suggestion that the British people can settle this matter for themselves, but as I have stated, I do not think this step by the government necessary."

The first part of the home secretary's answer was cheered.

Exemption Cases

New Judgment Has Important Bearing on Legality of Orders-in-Council.

Montreal. — A judgment which may have an important bearing upon all exemption cases under the Military Service act, in that it questions the legality of an order-in-council cancelling exemptions which have been duly and legally granted under the letter of the act, was handed down by Judge Leet in the case of Lafard vs. Senecal.

It is indicated in the judgment that it may be necessary to rehear most of the cases. The judgment says that no order-in-council could abrogate penalties imposed under the Military Service act and likewise should not be allowed to cancel exemptions granted.

Britain's Thanks

Formal Reception Given Military Leaders and Others for War Services.

London. — Marshal Foch of France, the allied chief in command, and various military and auxiliary services of Great Britain that served in the war, were given a formal vote of thanks by the house of commons. The vote included mention of the British women's organizations.

The formal thanks of the government is part of the recognition given for war services. King George made known his recommendation for titles and large money grants to a number of the commanding officers of the land, air and sea forces.

Japan Respects Chinese Sovereignty.

Tokio. — Viscount Uchida, the Japanese foreign minister, is a statement, declares that Japan does not intend to claim any rights affecting the territorial sovereignty of China in Shantung. He promises that the Japanese troops will be withdrawn immediately an arrangement is concluded with China. Japan, moreover, the foreign minister's statement adds, is considering the establishment at Tsing Tao of a general foreign settlement instead of a purely Japanese settlement.

Training Canadian Wives.

London. — British wives of Canadian soldiers going out to settle in the Dominion now number 30,000. The movement initiated by the Khaki college to give special training to these for Canadian life has been remarkably successful.

Ferdinand Offered Doubtful Honor.

Berlin. — According to a Vienna despatch to the Zwoelf Uhr Blatt, the counter-revolutionary Hungarian government has offered the Hungarian throne to King Ferdinand, of Rumania.

Invite Foch to U. S.

Paris. — Marshal Foch, commander-in-chief of the allied armies during the war, is reported by the Echo de Paris to have been invited by the United States government, as well as several organizations in that country, to visit America.

Police Favored Strikers

Sensational Testimony Added To Evidence In Case of Seditious Conspiracy.

Winnipeg. — Direct evidence that the city police stood by and watched the strikers, on the first day of the strike, while they deliberately maltreated citizens on their way to work, trespassed and destroyed property, was given at the trial of the eight strike leaders by A. A. Riley, of the Canada Bread company. Denial that the citizens' committee of one thousand was a "capitalistic concern" and that it was formed for any other purpose than endeavoring to continue the operation of public utilities during the strike was also tendered by Edward Parnell, of the Speirs-Parnell Baking company, at the morning session. Sandy Cuthbert, of the city street commissioners' department, also told of threats that had been made if he did not quit work. He stated that one of the strikers, an Austrian, and a former employee of this department, had threatened to kill him.

R. B. Graham, crown prosecutor, was the first witness called at the afternoon sittings of the court. He stated that the police were permitted to remain on duty by the strike committee but could have been called out at a moment's notice and that at the outbreak of the trouble in Winnipeg they were not subservient to the orders of them, but rather the strikers.

A. A. Riley, manager of the Canada Bread company, gave evidence that he had no notice of the strike until about 2.30 p.m. the first day of the strike. That evening, said the witness, an organized gang, two truck-loads of "strong-arm men," came from downtown under the leadership of a man named Winters, whom witness believed was organizer for the carpenters. These men forcibly entered the building, shut off the machinery and prevented the men from working.

"In response to a call by telephone for aid, a police officer came," said witness, "and as we entered the building Winters came out. Speaking to the officer he said: 'We've cleared the last — scab out.' The policeman replied: 'That's fine.' Turning to the policeman, I said: 'This is pretty tough luck; they've done some damage,' and he replied: 'I know, but the people are not going to stand for your business to be carried on like this you know.'"

Europe May Never Recover.

"These four years of mad destruction may have struck a blow at Europe's prosperity from which it will never recover. Some of the greatest of the Dominion statesmen have expressed their conviction that the result will be a permanent change. They foresee a great and increasing migration from Great Britain, and, indeed, from all the war-torn countries, of people fleeing from national bankruptcy in a region haunted by evil dreams. From such a migration they anticipate the building-up of huge communities in still unsettled lands, which will give a new orientation to the world's future history. Canada, South Africa, Australia will take the place in this war which was taken by the West after the Civil War in America."

Cannot Come in a Day.

A new order must come, but no old order dies in a day. The vast scathe of war is still in Europe's mind. The outcroppings of imperialism, grab and conquest at Versailles are ebullitions that must subside. Europe must accept the spirit of the League of Nations in sincerity and good faith or perish. That is the great thing. The wording is secondary. — Saturday Evening Post.

U.S. Takes Action To Stop Profiteering

Strong Tariff Resolution

Text of Resolutions Submitted to the National Liberal Convention.

Ottawa. — The full text of the tariff resolutions submitted to the national Liberal convention was as follows:

"That the best interests of Canada demand that substantial reductions of the burdens of customs taxation be made with a view to the accomplishing of two purposes of the highest importance: First, diminishing the very high cost of living which presses so severely on the masses of the people; second, reducing the cost of the instruments of production in the industries based on the natural resources of the Dominion, the vigorous development of which is essential to the progress of our country.

"That to these ends, wheat, wheat flour, and all products of wheat, the principal articles of food, farm implements and machinery, farm tractors, mining, flour and sawmill machinery and repair parts thereof; rough and dressed lumber, gasoline, illuminating, lubricating and fuel oils, etc., net twines, and fishermen's equipments; cements and fertilizers, should be free from custom duties, as well as the raw material entering into the same.

"That a revision downwards of the tariff should be made whereby substantial reductions should be effected in the duties of wearing apparel, and footwear and on other articles of general consumption (other than luxuries) as well as on the raw material entering into the manufacture of the same.

"That the British preference be increased to 50 per cent. of the general tariff, and the Liberal party hereby pledges itself to implement by legislation the provision of this revision when returned to power."

Troops Refused To Obey Orders

Mutiny Caused Polish General To Resign Command.

Berlin. — A despatch to the Vorwarts from Bromberg, province of Posen, says it has been learned that the real reason for the resignation of General Musnik, commander of the Polish troops in Posen, was that there had been sanguinary mutinies of Polish troops in Posen, Gnesen and Warthe, and also at the front.

Entire companies and even battalions, the despatch says, refused to obey orders and maltreated their officers. In the Warthe camp, officers, who endeavored to have resort to arms, were shot dead or were badly wounded.

The reason for the disturbances is given as growing discontent on the part of the soldiers at the Russian system, which Musnik introduced.

French Food Plan Is Success.

Paris. — The plan recently adopted by the French food ministry to reduce food prices is working successfully in some of the French cities. At Havre eggs have been reduced from $1.20 per dozen to 60 cents, onions from ten to five cents per pound, and potatoes from four to two cents per pound. The reductions in some foodstuffs vary from 20 to 50 per cent.

Ira Stratton Resigns.

Winnipeg. — Ira Stratton, president of the Manitoba Civil Service association, has resigned.

Washington. — Anti-trust suits against the great meat packing firms were announced by Attorney-General Palmer as the first concrete development of the government's campaign to reduce the high cost of living.

Armour, Swift, Morris, Wilson and Cudahy, who have been pictured in the investigations of the federal trade commission and before congressional committees as a great commission in control of food products, are to be hauled again before the federal courts by special prosecutors. The evidence in hand, Attorney-General Palmer declared, indicated "a clear violation of the anti-trust laws."

While he was announcing prosecutions of the packers, Attorney-General Palmer was unleashing his special agents on a country-wide trial of profiteering and food hoarding. These prosecutions come under the food control law.

All United States attorneys were instructed to ferret out food hoarders, and libel them under federal law.

Another major development of the day was the making public of the federal trade commission's report on the shoe industry investigation. This report charges that the high price of shoes is due to excessive profit-taking from every dealer in the trade. Packers, tanners, manufacturers and retailers all shares in the blame. The report was placed before Attorney-General Palmer.

The Order Of Merit

Lloyd George Receives Token of Appreciation From the King.

London. — King George has conferred upon Premier David Lloyd George the Order of Merit as a sign of his appreciation of Lloyd George's war services. In a letter to the premier, dated Buckingham Palace, August 5, announcing the award, the King says:

"My Dear Prime Minister: "Honors and rewards to officials of the army, navy and air forces having been submitted to parliament, I feel that my people will share with me regret that it is not possible to express the nation's grateful recognition of the persistent services rendered by the prime minister, both in carrying the war to a victorious end, and in securing an honorable peace. To rectify somewhat this omission, and, personally, to mark my high esteem, it gives me great pleasure to confer upon you the Order of Merit. Believe me,

"Yours very sincerely,
(Signed) "GEORGE, R.I."

Is Your Screen Door Working Right?

Is it keeping the flies out or they getting in in spite of the door? If your door does not fit right, it isn't working right and if it isn't made right, it won't fit right.

A screen door has to stand very severe strain and banging. The joints must be very solid and tight or it will sag and when it sags it won't keep shut tight. Then the flies get in.

Sometimes you can brace a weak jointed door but that is only temporary.

The best remedy is a new door that is made right. We have them. Let us show you why they will work right for you for years.

Our screen winpows are made in the same way—sound and durable.

Use good screens all around this year and enjoy the warm weeks.

There was a man who lived in the east, he was troubled with aches and pains, so he jumped from a four-storey window, and dashed out all his brains, and when they found his brains were gone, very wisely they agreed, to put him in charge of a government job, there brains they do not need.

A horse belonging to Tom Fisher broke its leg in the pasture. The poor brute was soon put out of its misery.

Mr. Short who went berry picking on Sunday last with a party of friends had the misfortune to have an upset, the car pitching into the ditch. Mr. Brown who was around the spot at the time with his Ford rendered assistance and pulled the chevrolet with its passengers out of danger.

Mr. John Leuszler, who came to Didsbury about 15 years ago, from Tavistock, Perth, Ontario, died on Tuesday morning, at 5 o'clock. He was the owner of considerable property in town including that known as the Leuszler Block. Deceased was about 65 years of age.

Don't talk about astrology or union government, For these are things she'll never understand,

Just get a little closer, put one arm around her waist. Then kiss her on the lips and squeeze her hand Leslie Grossmith Coming—Mr. Leslie Grossmith, the famous English entertainer and musician is about to make an extensive tour through the Province of Alberta and has arranged to appear at Didsbury early in September. Particulars will be announced in our next issue.

She was weeping bitter tears into her afternoon tea.

Oh, my dear!" she said to her only friend, "I don't know what I shall do. Ted and I have only been married six months, yet he spends every evening at his club."

Well, don't worry, darling," said the other, "Percy's just the same, but I shall never scold him again for spending so much time at the club."

"Why not?" "Well, last night a burglar got into the house, and my husband knocked him senseless with a poker. I've heard several men speak of him as a poker expert. He has evidently been practising at the club for just such an emergency."
